AIUCD 2020

- The list of DH journals is available online, and citable from Zenodo (v 0.1.0)
- Created script to get top 5 terms from publication title in clusters
- Attached another module to the pipeline to retrieve the sets we used for AIUCD.

Main issue

We say that not all of the publications from journals depicted as significantly are DH.
But for the analysis from the paper and the thesis, we take into consideration all of the publications as DH. While the percentage of them should be something between 50 and 75.
